As a recording of the good times we have had, the influence of people we have met, and the trials we have shared, we hope this annual will prove to be one of your most cherished possessions, providing a lasting memory of high school days.

Foreword

In deepest gratitude for his friendly interest, understanding, and inspiration, the Senior Class of nineteen-hundred fifty-nine proudly dedicates its "Rendezvous" to TED D. AUSTIN.

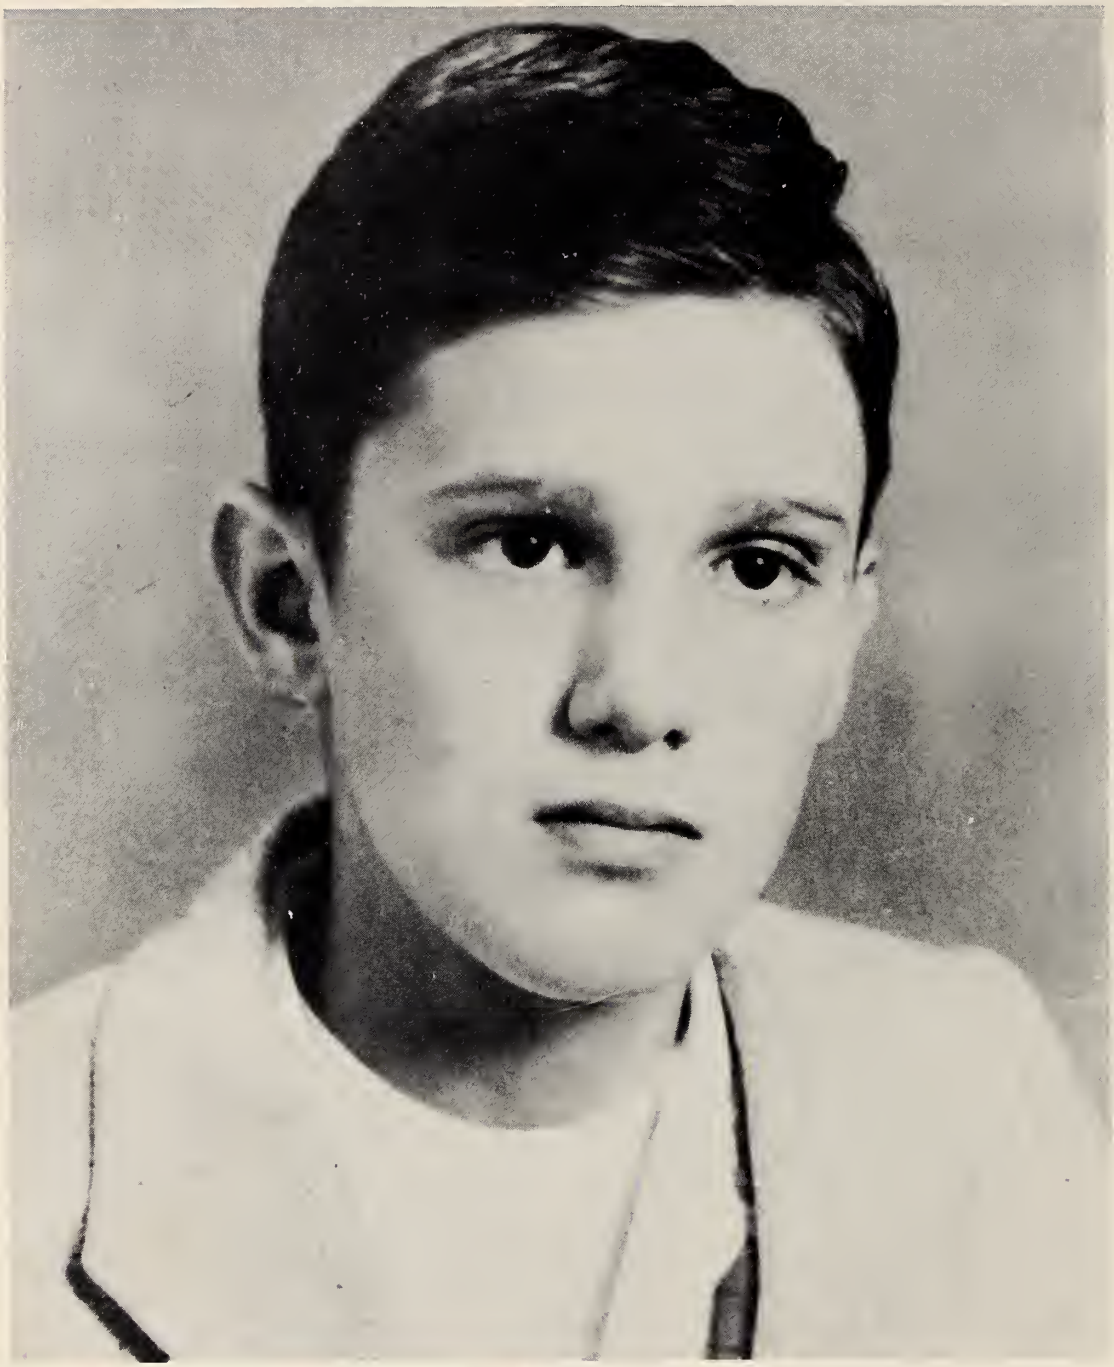
In Memoriam



On May 18, 1956 the Class of '59 was saddened by the death of a fellow member. In memory of warm friendship, we reserve this page in honor of
KENNETH RAY HUNSUCKER.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

All recorded events become a part of history. This publication is a history of the Graduating Class of 1959. Here is recorded the highlights of your school career in printed and pictoral form. This publication is yours, compiled by you so that you may from time to time, in the future, review this portion in your life which will mean more to you as time passes.

Everything in this, your history, is a part of the foundation on which your future will be built. If you have a good foundation, you may expect a successful future. All of you have attained a certain amount of success, since you have graduated from high school. I am sure that your success in graduating from high school is an outcome of hard work, co-operation, sincerity and a desire to succeed. To succeed in life you need only to continue on this same basis.

Our aim at Randleman High School has been to help you to gain as much knowledge as you will need to start your career in life and to attain attitudes that will allow you to use this knowledge most advantageously in earning a living and enjoying life.

We shall watch with anticipation as you make your way in life and sincerely hope that your way be both successful and happy.

Poem

TOMORROW

We consider the present,
Dwell thoughtfully on the past,
And anxiously ponder the future.
Soon we shall walk solemnly
Down these corridors for the last time.
Then the door of Reality will be flung open,
And Tomorrow will no longer await us
Behind closed doors.

For twelve short years we have lived here;
We have been protected by guiding hands.
Soon it will be past,
And we must go on, alone.
No longer shall we have these guiding hands
To go before us and smooth the way,
Or push the briars aside
As we walk by.

Today we see things dimly,
As a shadow cast upon a restless sea.
Tomorrow we shall be able to see more clearly
Through unprejudiced eyes.
We shall become accustomed to rocky roads
And thorns which sting the flesh.
Tomorrow must be molded and made
By our own aspirations.

Tomorrow
We must be ready.
For twelve years
We have waited with hopeful longing
Til we could be on our own.
It is a challenge—can we meet it?
Are we ready?
Tomorrow awaits.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1959, of Randleman High School, realizing our departure is near at hand, hereby declare and make this our last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

To Mr. Cromartie, our principal, we leave our appreciation for his guidance through our high school years.

ARTICLE II

To Mrs. Montgomery and Mr. Austin, our senior sponsors, we leave our love and thanks for guiding our steps each day for a better future.

ARTICLE III

To the other teachers, may we express our gratitude for helping each of us to become seniors.

ARTICLE IV

To the Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen, we leave the responsibility for each of them to use their educational opportunities now.

ARTICLE V

We bequeath to individuals the following items:

I, HILDA ALLRED, leave my ability of talking incessantly to everyone in the halls to Ila Jean Johnson, and my height to Sylvia Blake.

I, VALASTRA ALLRED, leave my place behind the ice cream box to my sister Irene, and my place at the radiator to the freshmen who unsuccessfully tried to take it this year.

I, FAYE AUMAN, leave my seat in shorthand to anyone who takes it, wishing him better luck than I had.

I, DOYLE BATTEN, leave my ability to get into detention hall to Jimmy Hamlet, and a book of detention notices to Mr. Edwards.

I, NAN RICE BEAN, leave my position on the basketball team to Faye Cooley, hoping she will fill the position better than I did.

I, OTIS "Mustard" BRAMMER, leave my superlative to Guy Steed, my path up the road to Bill Lineberry, and my ability to get along with Mr. Edwards to Johnny Walls.

I, BRENDA BROWN, leave my title of "Most Studious" to Jean Julian.

I, SYLVIA BURROW, leave anything I have forgotten to anyone who can find it.

I, EMOGENE COLTRANE, leave my ability to talk and laugh in Mr. Wall's Economics Class to anyone who likes to have a lot of fun.

I, BRENDA CORNWELL, leave my art of blushing to Larry Allred.

We, MARGARET COX and NANCY RUSSELL, leave Mr. Wall a quiet class, and leave our positions at our radiator to anyone who can think of ways to pester the whole school.

I, SANDRA DAVIS, leave my title of "Most Typical" to anyone who can compose himself enough to act like a senior, and my place in the Junior and Senior plays to my sister "Minkey."

I, SUE DENNIS, leave my title to my sister Brenda, and leave my place at the radiator for my sister Shirley and her gang.

I, WALTER DENNIS, leave because I want to get an education.

I, JUDITH EVANS, leave my ability to go four years without a detention slip to my brother Kenneth.

I, TONY EWING, leave my ability to drive Bus 84 to anyone who can drive it, and my place as pitcher on the baseball team to anyone who is left-handed and can pitch.

I, ISSAC FARLOW, leave because I have no other choice.

I, JAMES FARLOW, leave gladly.

I, LEWIS FARLOW, leave my long legs to Wally Hockett.

I, NANCY FOGLEMAN, leave with Jimmy, and leave my title as "Most Athletic" to my sister Judy who, I hope, will deserve it more than I.

I, THAD GRAY, leave my ability to live at night and sleep on Saturday and Sunday mornnings to DeVere Williams.

Last Will and Testament

I, BETTY JO GREGSON, leave my title as "Best Sport" to Jean Julian, and my ability to keep my mouth shut to anyone who needs it.

I, RACHEL FOGLEMAN GRIFFIN, leave gladly to join my husband Rudolph who is in the Army.

I, PATSY HILL, leave my seat in bookkeeping to my sister Betty and hope she likes it as much as I do.

I, LINDA HOLLINGSWORTH, leave Homecoming Queen to Lynda Owens, and I leave all my friends regretfully.

I, LARRY HOUGH, leave Bus 17 to anyone who will have it.

I, MYRA HUSSEY, leave with fond memories of High School days.

I, RAYMOND LANIER, leave my Pontiac troubles to Monroe Yow.

I, JIMMY LINEBERRY, leave my superlative as "Best Looking" to Bill Lineberry.

I, WEAVER LINEBERRY, leave before anyone finds out what I have really been doing all year.

I, RACHEL MARSH, leave my determination to get a good education to my brother James, and my sisters Lois, Jean, and Pat. I leave everyone to use his educational opportunities now.

I, PATSY MEYERS, leave the happiest days of my life to anyone who can enjoy himself in school as much as I have.

I, MILDRED NELSON, leave my position as Treasurer of the Student Council to anyone who wants much responsibility.

I, PHYLLIS OLIVER, leave anything I have to anyone who wants it.

I, JULIAN REITZEL, leave digging out in low gear, my superlative to DeVere Williams, and to Mr. Edwards my place in detention hall.

I, ARNOLD RICH, leave my muscles to Archie Wood.

I, FRANK RICH, leave my mathematical brain to Jimmy Davis.

I, BOBBIE JO RICHARDSON, leave my superlative, "Best Personality," to Ruth Richardson, and any other art that I may have to whoever needs it.

I, RAYMOND RICHARDSON, leave my football Jersey No. 40 to Dale "Red Fox" Hollingsworth.

I, JERRY ROBBINS, leave with permission for a change.

I, LAWRENCE SMITH, leave wishing I could take Brenda with me.

I, DELBERT SPILLMAN, leave my ability to make untimely remarks to anyone who is unfortunate enough to get it.

I, MARIE STAMEY, leave my title as "Most Considerate" to whoever deserves it.

I, JANICE STANLEY, leave my position as a senior to my brother Raymond, and my place in the Junior play to anyone who can fill it.

I, ANNETTE STEED, leave my position as Beta Club President to anyone capable of getting twenty-five hours out of one day.

I, JAMES THOMPSON, leave my title of "Best Personality" to Delores Eisenhart, and all my fun at the radiator to anyone that enjoys it as much as I did.

I, LOUISE TROGDON, leave my ability to get along with Mr. Brookshire to Ann Gregson, and my position on the basketball team to anyone who can make as many mistakes as I.

I, PAT VARNER, leave my position as scorekeeper to anyone who is sly enough to boost our score, and I leave all my friends regretfully.

I, BOB VICKORY, leave my bus, and football Jersey No. 75 to Wally Hockett.

I, FAY DEEN WALLS, leave my superlative "Best-All-Around" to Lynda Owens.

I, FAYE WARD, leave my place in bookkeeping to anyone who wants it.

I, ALWANDA WILLIAMS, leave Mr. Wall permanently because I have had him every year in high school.

I, BETTY JEAN WOOD, leave my seat in typing to Linda King in hopes that she will take it.

I, WADE YOUNG, leave my ability to get into trouble with Mrs. Newlin to Wayne Hill.

I, NORA YOW, leave my position as Secretary of the Library Club to anyone who is nominated for it, and Girls' Basketball Manager to Elizabeth Duggins.

Hereunto we set hand and seal

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1959

Sandra Davis, Testatrix

Class Prophecy

Ten years ago when the class of '59 graduated we really thought we had it made. No more school or taking orders for us. How wrong can you be? We found out that you don't start at the top of anything. Despite this, our class has done extra well.

This morning when I was making rounds at the Randleman Memorial Hospital, where I am a nurse, I discovered that one of my patients was WEAVER LINEBERRY, who is working for General Electric as an electric engineer. Like most big businessmen, he was having an annual checkup. While we were talking, NAN BEAN, who is a laboratory technician, dropped in to take a blood test. Before long the class of '59 entered into the conversation. Weaver told us that PHYLLIS OLIVER is private secretary to executive JAMES THOMPSON, who manufactures Thompson's seat covers for young toddlers.

BETTY JO GREGSON, JUDITH EVANS, and SUE DENNIS are nurses at Cone Memorial Hospital in Greensboro.

PATSY MEYERS didn't confine her acting to high school. She is now the star of a comedy hit on Broadway.

RACHEL MARSH is working as an informer for the FBI.

LEWIS FARLOW broke all records in the Olympics this year as a track star.

NANCY FOGLEMAN is a top fashion artist in New York. NANCY RUSSELL is her model.

WALTER DENNIS recently boosted his standing as a race car driver by winning the "Darlington 500." His speeding is now legal.

When SYLVIA BURROW is not too busy milking cows, she spends her spare time as a model on the "Big Payoff."

CURTIS HOLLINGSWORTH is now expanding his dairy; he's giving Guilford Dairy some tough competition.

MARIE STAMEY is working as secretary for JIMMY LINEBERRY who has a chain of used car lots.

BOB VICKORY is owner of a large construction company. WADE YOUNG is his assistant.

LOUISE TROGDON is touring the South with a women's professional basketball team.

FAY AUMAN is holding down a very important job as housewife.

MARGARET COX is working for the Welfare Department, caring for underprivileged children.

LARRY HOUGH has now advanced to the position of manager of Ellis Stone.

MILDRED NELSON's experience as a treasurer has paid off—apart from being a housewife, she owns a large share in a finance company.

JULIAN REITZEL is making a career in the Air Force and he is now a Major.

MYRA HUSSEY is always mixing up something, but it's okay because she is working for a chemical company.

SANDRA DAVIS and FAY DEEN WALLS are moving around a great deal; they are stewardesses for Trans World Airlines. Their favorite pilot is JERRY ROBBINS.

"MUSTARD" BRAMMER has taken Perry Mason's place as top lawyer in the nation.

RACHEL FOGLEMAN GRIFFIN is running a day nursery in which she keeps other people's children, as well as her own.

LINDA HOLLINGSWORTH is winning all titles in beauty contests. Her face is on the cover of every magazine.

Class Prophecy

THAD GRAY is testing cars for Chrysler Corportion. If they still run after he's driven them, they can withstand any test.

JANICE STANLEY, who majored in music in college, is married to a minister and is choir director at the Christian Church.

BOBBY JO RICHARDSON is busy trying to beautify the ladies in Randleman. She has a very large and successful beauty salon.

ARNOLD RICH is capturing all world titles as a weight lifter.

HILDA ALLRED is still working for Belk's; she is now manager of stores from Hollywood to Broadway.

Similar to the Terri Lee dolls, they are now manufacturing Frilly Fay dolls. The president of the company is, of course, FAY WARD.

FRANK RICH, our Most Typical senior, is a very outstanding citizen. He is chairman of the County School Board.

The Randleman Library has expanded and the head Librarian is VALASTRA ALLRED. NORA YOW is her assistant.

The Duke football team, with RAYMOND RICHARDSON as coach, had a very successful season this year.

ANNETTE STEED is teaching Home Economics at Randleman High School where DELBERT SPILLMAN is the principal. LAWRENCE SMITH recently signed a contract to build a new high school.

Flowers for most of the patients in the hospital come from a florist owned by none other than ALWANDA WILLIAMS.

ISAAC FARLOW has a large cattle farm and is now president of the National Cattlemen's Association.

One of the artists of the class, DOYLE BATTEN, is a cartoonist for the New York Times.

JAMES FARLOW's experience in the FBLA certainly helps him in his position as president of the Scottish Bank.

BRENDA BROWN didn't receive the title of "Most Studious" for nothing. She received her Master's Degree and is on the faculty of Wake Forest College in the English Department.

BRONZIE LAWSON and RAYMOND LANIER are now partners in running a service station.

EMOGENE COLTRANE is the dietician at Randleman High School with PATSY HILL as her assistant.

The Women's Editor of the Greensboro Daily News is a former classmate, BETTY JEAN WOOD.

TONY EWING loved #84 so much that he couldn't give up bus driving, so he now drives for Greyhound.

I enjoyed hearing about my classmates very much, I'm very proud to be a member of the Class of 1959.

Oh, by the way, Weaver is in excellent health.

Class History

As class historian, I would like to take you back into the past and relive with you some of the highlights of our high school days.

In the fall of 1955, we, the Class of 1959, made our first appearance in high school. After our first excitement subsided and we became accustomed to our surroundings, we began doing all the things that Freshmen do. Under the guidance of our sponsors, Mr. Neal, Mr. Causey, Mr. Reynolds, and Mrs. Hardin, we elected our officers and ended our first year of high school with a picnic at High Point City Lake.

As I continue to look into the past, I see our Sophomore year filled with more confidence and numerous activities, in which we are beginning to take part. With Miss Walton and Mr. Wall as our sponsors, we topped off our Sophomore year with a picnic at Reynolds Park.

In the fall of '57 we emerged as Juniors and our goal is in view as we continue our journey. With the help of our sponsors, Miss Cox and Miss Eason, we began making plans for the various conventions, magazine campaigns, the Junior play, and helping the Seniors with their graduation exercises. Bursting with excitement, the real highlight of the year came on April 25, 1958, at Sedgefield Manor. Our theme, "An Enchanted Evening" will cause everyone to remember our Junior-Senior Banquet for years to come.

At last in the fall of 1958 we reached the final step in our High School education fully aware of the many tasks ahead. But there was no time to dwell on the fact that we were finally Seniors. Our Senior sponsors, Mr. Austin and Mrs. Montgomery were invaluable in helping choose our class officers, superlatives, mascots, annual staff, Senior play, and caps and gowns. We will never forget our trip to Washington or how wonderful it was to be honored at the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Time was passing fast and graduation was upon us before we knew it. All too soon the journey has ended. We have lost some classmates and gained others along the way. We have finally reached our goal, and tomorrow we take a new road to new places, new ideals, and new dreams. Our history here at Randleman High School is behind us, but the history of each individual is what we shall make it in the future.

To a sweet girl and a true friend
Ann Pickett

I have enjoyed knowing you this year because you are a very smart, nice, friendly,
"cute", and smart girl. I wish you happiness and success in your four years of school that will follow.
Love always,
Kenny

To a real nice girl who I have enjoyed alot. May you have success and happiness during the next four years in school and remember your "old friend".
Love always.
Charlotte

Much love to a sweet and wonderful girl. May you always have the best of everything.
